

Possible Date of the Great Miracle of Garabandal predicted by Conchita Gonzalez (11th April 2019)

Introduction

I have to assume that the reader is already familiar with accounts of the apparitions at San Sebastian de Garabandal, Northern Spain, between 1961 and 1965. It would not be practicable to provide an account of those events in this document. You will find a good account in the book "The Apparitions of Garabandal" by F. Sanchez-Ventura Y Pascual which was first published in 1965.

There were four visionaries, all young girls, - Mary Loly Mazon (now deceased), Conchita Gonzalez, Jacinta Gonzalez and Mary Cruz Gonzalez. These were not close relatives. The principal visionary was Conchita Gonzalez. She has been instructed by Our Lady to give eight days notice of a Great Miracle which it is predicted will take place at Garabandal.

There is a widely held opinion that the date of the Great Miracle will be 11th April. I too believe that this will be the date in Garabandal itself. If it is that date in Garabandal, it will also be 11th April over about half the land mass of the earth. However, it will be 12th April over the other half. The dividing line will be, from north to south, a line which will run approximately through Teheran in Iran.

The fact that these two dates would be involved (and not just 11th April) is central to what I am about to explain.

What we know about the Date of the predicted Great Miracle

I have to keep this short (the following is taken from various sources) -

- It will occur on a Thursday.
- At about 8.30pm.
- It will occur on a date between 8th and 16th April.
- It will coincide with "an event of great importance for Christendom" "with an event in the Church".
- Feast of a Saint who is "indirectly connected to the Holy Eucharist", and of a Saint who is "a martyr of the Holy Eucharist".
- Will be seen by everybody who comes to Garabandal and its surroundings.
- The Pope and Padre Pio will see it wherever they happen to be.
<<Padre Pio is now deceased and has been canonised>>
<<Perhaps the Great Miracle has been postponed ? >>
- It will last for about fifteen minutes.
- The Sick who are present will be cured.
(An interview which I heard with Joey Lomangino suggests that it may be the cure of just one condition, perhaps minor.)
- Sinners will be converted <<N.B. - "Sinners" NOT "Non-Catholics">>
<<There cannot be a breach of "Free Will" - E.S.>>
- The Bishop will raise the prohibition beforehand so that Priests can attend.
- There will be a Permanent Sign (where?).
- Conchita said:- "Miracle will be as great and spectacular as the World needs."
- The Miracle will be announced by Conchita eight days in advance.

St. Stanislaus of Krakow AND St. Juliana of Liège

The two saints who seem to me to best fit the descriptions of the saints whose feasts will coincide with the predicted Great Miracle are St. Stanislaus of Krakow and St. Juliana of Liège.

The official Universal Church feast of St. Stanislaus of Krakow is 11th April. Stanislaus was murdered while saying Mass on 8th May 1079 in the Chapel of Saint Michael in a suburb of Krakow, Poland. In Poland his feast is 8th May. There is now a Basilica on the site which has the name Basilica of St. Michael and St. Stanislaus. (Note the connection with St. Michael). This Basilica is well worth a visit. It is just a short walk from Krakow city centre and is very close to a wide section of the River Vistula. It is a very quiet place. It seems reasonable to me to assume that Stanislaus is the Saint who is "a martyr of the Holy Eucharist".

The official Universal Church feast of St. Juliana of Liège is 6th April. There may be confusion about what year Juliana died. Most sources say 1258. However, they all say that she died on 5th April. This is a Julian Calendar date. If the Gregorian Calendar had been in existence at that time, then her date of death would have been 12th April. Juliana is formally attributed by the Church with bringing about the Feast of Corpus Christi. Some sources attribute this quite incorrectly to another person. For the official Church position about St. Juliana, as spoken by Pope Benedict in 2010, see the Vatican Website at - http://www.vatican.va/holy_father/benedict_xvi/audiences/2010/documents/hf_ben-xvi_aud_20101117_en.html

It seems reasonable to me to assume that Juliana is the Saint who is "indirectly connected to the Holy Eucharist".

I expect, therefore, that on the date of the Great Miracle (a) it will be a Thursday 11th April, the Feast of St. Stanislaus of Krakow, over about half of the land mass of the Earth west of a line of longitude running roughly through Teheran, Iran, and that (b) it will be a Friday 12th April, the Gregorian Calendar version of the date of death of St. Juliana of Liège, over the other half of the land mass of the Earth east of that line.

Thursday 11th April arises only occasionally

Since the end of the apparitions in 1965 to 2014 there were Thursdays 11th in 1968, 1974, 1985, 1991, 1996, 2002 and 2013. The next instance will be 2019. Conchita Gonzalez will be 70 in 2019. She is a widow. Mary Loly is deceased. Time is marching on. Even assuming that she will live to be 100, the remaining Thursdays 11th during her lifetime will be 2019, 2024, 2030, 2041 and 2047.

There is a Precise Timing Relationship (a Prime Number in this case) associated with Thursday 11th April 2019 and not with any of the others

This mathematical fact is my key reason for selecting 2019 and not selecting any of the others. I could, of course, be wrong. Unfortunately, I have not yet prepared a comprehensive work about precise timings in general associated with some apparitions and I have not yet presented (on my websites) a sufficient number of examples of these. For some examples see <https://tsmit.net/precisetimings>. Very briefly, (a) there are a number of different “types” of timing relationships (the use of Prime Numbers is one), and (b) there are “rules” about the construction of such timing relationships.

See also <https://tsmit.net/precisetimings/garabandalpellevoisin.htm>

Rules which apply to this “Prime Number” timing relationship

- Some relevant dates are START dates and some are END dates.
 - If a significant date is for some good reason a START date, then the day before is an END date regardless of whether or not it is significant in itself.
 - Some of the timing relationships consist of a Prime Number only.
- ◆ I have assumed that all of the Thursdays 11th April are START dates (the start of some changed situation that will exist after the Great Miracle has happened).
- ◆ If so, then the preceding Wednesdays 10th would be END dates of some period or periods (unspecified).
- ◆ I decided to calculate the number of days from 1st January of Year 1 to these particular Wednesdays 10th April and to look for a particular type of number which arises in some other timing relationships, namely, Prime Numbers.
- ◆ Only one of these periods of days is a Prime Number, that to 10th April, 2019.

(Read about some other timing relationships at <https://tsmit.net/precisetimings>)

SUMMARY OF WHAT I AM SUGGESTING

- The date of the Great Miracle is likely to be some Thursday 11th April.
- There are a limited number (twelve only) of Thursdays 11th April in the possible lifetime of Conchita Gonzalez and seven of these have passed.
- Time is marching on and the Great Miracle needs to happen soon. It would seem reasonable that, in deference to Conchita Gonzalez (she will be 70 in 2019), God should cause the Great Miracle to occur in either 2019 or 2024 at the latest.
- There would be a precise timing relationship (a Prime Number) associated with the Great Miracle (as explained above) if the date were to be 11th April 2019.
- The date of the Great Miracle would be associated with two Saints rather than just one saint (again as explained above).
- My belief is that the more significant Saint of the two is St. Juliana of Liège because of her association with the Feast of Corpus Christi.

It is a general objective of Our Lady to promote Her Son through Her Apparitions. It is a specific Plan of Our Lady (a) to promote Her Son through the Divine Food of the Holy Eucharist, and (b) to promote in Us an understanding of God’s Desired Relationship with Us.

It is my personal understanding that it is another specific Plan of Our Lady to arrange that a small number of periods of time within some series of apparitions will consist of precise timing relationships. Hence the documents that I have written about them, including this one.

Additional Material added on Tuesday 20th February 2018

- ❖ A further minor/simple vision - Saturday 4th April 2015,
- ❖ Displaced date of the Feast of the Annunciation - 4th April 2016,
- ❖ Possible date for the announcement of the Garabandal Great Miracle - 4th April 2019,
- ❖ 100th Anniversary of the death of St. Francisco Marto - 4th April 2019,
- ❖ Two precisely four year intervals -
 - 18th June 1961 to 18th June 1965 and
 - 4th April 2015 to 4th April 2019.

It is a matter of embarrassment to me to have to mention that I have seen three minor/simple visions. Initially, I had dismissed one of them as not being likely to be of supernatural origin. However, I have changed my mind about this and now believe that it was. The two that I was happy about relate to a particular matter, whereas the other clearly did not relate to that matter and so I dismissed it. Let me briefly explain things.

The two that I was happy about occurred on Saturday 26th April 2014 (The Feast of Our Lady of Good Counsel) and on Saturday 27th June 2015 (The Feast of Our Lady of Perpetual Succour). Both of these have clear associations with a book that I had completed writing on 26th April 2012 - exactly two years to the day before the first minor/simple vision. I have explained the case (a) for these being of supernatural origin and (b) for them being associated with my book. My arguments for this, along with full details of these two minor/simple visions, are set down in Appendix 1 to the book in question which is entitled The Single Most Important Truth.

I will deal first with the previously “dismissed” minor/simple vision. It occurred on Saturday 4th April 2015 (a date which falls between the dates the other two). It occurred in my local Parish Church (as did the first of the other two) during the 9:00pm Easter Vigil Mass. It started while the Choir were singing the Gloria. I didn't, at first, notice that I was seeing absolutely everything in a monochrome brownish red - people, furniture, Mass Booklet etc.

One of the reasons why I dismissed the 4th April 2015 minor vision was that that date was not a Feast of Our Lady. However, and I admit that this is a bit weak, Monday 4th April 2016 was deemed to be the Feast of the Annunciation because 25th March 2016 was Good Friday.

The central purpose of this Document is to explain my reasons for thinking that a possible date for the Great Miracle of Garabandal is 11th April 2019. Concita Gonzalez has said that she has been instructed to announce the date eight days before the Great Miracle. If my reasoning is correct, then it should be announced by her on Thursday 4th April 2019. In an interview, Concita is reported to have said that she would announce the date at Midnight.

4th April 2019 will be the 100th Anniversary (First Centenary) of the date of death of St. Francisco Marto, one of the Children of Fatima (the first to die).

There are two precisely four year intervals of time that I wish to draw readers' attention to.

- The first appearance of St. Michael in Garabandal was on 18th June 1961, and
- The announcement of the Final Message of Garabandal was on 18th June 1965.
- My “originally dismissed” minor Vision occurred on 4th April 2015, and
- The possible announcement of the Great Miracle would be on 4th April 2019.

While I cannot state definitively that the Great Miracle is going to happen on 11th April 2019, I am persuaded by my private experiences that that is the most probable date.
